Online Self-Assessment to empower Teachers' Technology Enhanced Teaching Competence
Final MENTEP conference, 27 March 2018

Crowne Plaza Hotel, Rue Gineste 3, B-1210 Brussels

08.30 – 09.30	REGISTRATION & COFFEE
09.30	Welcome, conference overview	Roger Blamire Senior Advisor, European Schoolnet
Policy experimentation context
09.40	Keynote: Policy experimentation- a living lab	European Commission (tbc)
09.50	Taking up the challenge: large-scale policy experimentation and policy making	Marc Durando Executive Director, European Schoolnet
10.00	Technology Enhanced Teaching competence: the core ideas of MENTEP	Anja Balanskat Senior Advisor, MENTEP project manager
Online self-assessment
10.10	Online self-assessment: what's in it for teachers and how can it work?	Janet Looney Director, European Institute of Education and Social Policy
10.20	Building and using TET-SAT, the online self- assessment tool	Anja Balanskat Katja Engelhardt Education Analyst, European Schoolnet
The MENTEP policy experiment
10.30	From a policy question to a rigorous experiment design	Patricia Wastiau Principal Advisor Research and Innovation, European Schoolnet
10.40-11.15	COFFEE BREAK
Key findings
11.15	Inside the black box: TET-SAT's impact on teachers and competencies	Enrico Rettore Senior Research Fellow, IRVAPP (Research Institute for the Evaluation of Public Policies) Professor, University of Trento, Italy

		Giovanni Abbiati Research Fellow, IRVAPP
12.00	Discussion
12.30-13.30	LUNCH
13.30- 14.30	Parallel sessions
Workshop 1	Success factors in policy experimentation Insights into the sampling process, recruitment of schools and running experimentation with teachers	Italy: IRVAPP Czech Republic: Centre for International Cooperation in Education Spain: INTEF
Workshop 2	TET-SAT hands-on Demonstration, hands-on and discussions with MENTEP teachers	Italy: Daniela Cuccurullo Portugal: Teresa Lacerda Greece: Anastasia Anagnostopoulou
Workshop 3	National professional development ecosystems How can teachers be effectively supported in their professional development after self-assessment?	European Schoolnet National Agency for Education, Finland National Education Institute, Slovenia
Workshop 4	Using TET-SAT: How the self-assessment tool is already used in a range of contexts and how it can be used by other countries	Education Development Centre, Lithuania Directorate-General for Education, Portugal HITSA, Estonia Regional Training Center of Patras, Greece Cyprus Pedagogical Institute, Cyprus National Education Institute, Slovenia Ministry of Science and Education, Croatia
14.40	Workshop Feedback	Panel discussion with rapporteurs
Looking forward
15.15	Assessing competence in an immersive environment	Gabriela Taddeo, Researcher INDIRE
15.35	Engaging teachers in reflection and bringing tools alive: the MENTEP vision	Diana Laurillard, Professor of Learning with Digital Technologies University of London
15.50	Call for action, closing remarks	Anja Balanskat, Roger Blamire
16.00	Close	